PART A – GENERAL TERMS

A1. THESE GENERAL TERMS

- a. This Part A sets out the general terms of the Sales and Services Agreement which governs the relationship between MYOB Australia Pty Ltd (MYOB, we, us, our) and the business entering into these terms or its nominated representative (you, your, yours) for the supply of all Solutions.
- b. We agree to supply, and you agree to use, the Solutions on the terms and conditions set out in these terms.
- c. These terms do not exclude, restrict or modify:
 1. the application of any provision of the Australian Consumer Law (whether applied as a law of the Commonwealth or any State or Territory of Australia) (ACL);
 2. the exercise of any right or remedy conferred by the ACL; or
 3. our liability for a failure to comply with any applicable consumer guarantees, where to do so would:
 - i. contravene the ACL; or
 - ii. cause any part of these terms to be void.

A2. SEPARATE SUPPLY AGREEMENTS

Supply Order procedure

When you request a Solution from us, we will send you a Supply Order setting out details of the Solutions you have ordered from us, the Fees and the additional terms of supply not already set out in the applicable Parts of these terms. You confirm that you do not rely on any representations made by us which are not set out in the applicable Parts of this agreement or in the Supply Order.

Making Supply Agreements

If we send you a Supply Order, a Supply Agreement is made when you have completed the Supply Order by signing and returning it to us or accepting it online. The terms of a particular Supply Agreement that will apply to our supply of a Solution to you will be the terms set out in:

- a. the completed and signed Supply Order and any attachments; and
- b. these terms.

These terms prevail over any inconsistent terms set out in a Supply Order, unless such inconsistent terms have been approved in writing by our Legal Team.

A3. INTERPRETATION

In these terms:

'these terms' means this Sales and Services Agreement and, where a Supply Agreement is made, also means each Supply Agreement entered into by you and us each time a Supply Order is signed or accepted;

'Bank Feeds' means MYOB BankFeeds, the service which enables users to electronically receive daily or monthly updates of transaction details for nominated accounts, including bank accounts and credit cards;

'Bank Feeds Data' means the transaction information and any other information relating to any account linked to Bank Feeds, which is available for you or your clients to access via Feeds and/or BankLink Software;

'Data' means electronic information received by us from you or from someone acting on your behalf, or collected and processed by you or on your behalf using one of our products or services;

'End User Licence' means the licence granted by us to you which governs the use of software by you and any of your end user clients;

Fees means the fees and charges relating to our provision of the Solutions, more particularly described and notified to you under this agreement;

Legal Team means the person holding the role of MYOB General Counsel for the time being;

Loss or Claim means any loss, liability, action, proceeding, damage, cost or expense (including all reasonable legal costs and expenses), including liability in tort and consequential and economic losses;

'Provisional Account' means functionality within the BankLink Software which allows the manual importation of electronic Data files which are not currently available via the automated Bank Feeds process;

'Solutions' means the software or services that we supply to you under a Supply Agreement;

'Supply Agreement' means an agreement for the supply of the Solutions set out in a Supply Order. A Supply Agreement includes these terms, the Supply Order and attachments; and

In these terms, the singular includes the plural and vice versa, reference to a person includes any legal or business entity, the words 'including' and 'for example' have no limiting effect and the contra proferentem rule does not apply and 'related companies' has the same meaning as related body corporate (under section 50 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)).

Our authority to license intellectual property rights

- a. We warrant that we have the right, title and interest in the intellectual property rights reasonably necessary for you to be able to use the Solutions (excluding third party software, hardware or services) provided under these terms. Ownership of the intellectual property rights in the Solutions shall never pass to you.

Your confidentiality obligation

- b. Except as permitted under this clause, you must keep confidential all information that you obtain from any sources relating to the technology, design, specification and content of any Solutions supplied, supported or maintained by us, anything else in which we claim intellectual property rights and anything else that we specify as confidential.
- c. You may disclose such information to any contractor of yours so long as the contractor is bound by a written undertaking to keep the information confidential on terms no less stringent than what we require of you under these terms. You must also inform us, on request, of the contractors to whom you have disclosed the information and what information you have disclosed to them.

Our rights in modifications

- d. If a Solution that we supply to you is modified in any way by any person, you acknowledge that, as between you and us, we own all intellectual property rights in the modification.

Dealing with claims of infringement

- e. If a third party claims that you are in breach of their intellectual property rights in a Solution (excluding third party software, hardware or services) supplied by us:
 1. you must inform us of the claim as soon as you become aware of it; and
 2. you must stop using the Solution at our request.
- f. We indemnify you against all liability under any final judgment in proceedings brought by that third party provided that you:
 1. have met all your obligations under these terms;
 2. give us the option to conduct the defence of the third party's claim (including any settlement or compromise negotiations);

We may collect personal information from you, from public sources such as social media websites and from third parties that provide us with marketing leads.
- b. To do these things, we may provide your personal information to our related companies and to third parties that we outsource functions to or partner with.  1. update your preferences about the marketing and promotional material we send to you;
 2. request access to and seek correction of the personal information we hold about you;
 3. make a privacy complaint; and
 4. how we will deal with your complaint.
- e. You can contact us about your privacy by email at privacy_officer@myob.com.au, or by post at "Privacy Officer", MYOB Australia Pty Ltd, PO Box 371, Blackburn, Victoria, 3130.

A8. FEES

Calculating Fees

- a. The Supply Order will set out the Fees for the Solution that you have ordered.
- b. All Fees are in Australian dollars and include GST and all other taxes or duties which may be applicable, unless otherwise stated in the Supply Order.
- c. Some costs that we may incur in supplying Solutions to you might not be known at the time that we issue and you accept a Supply Order, such as:
 1. the cost of our personnel travelling to and from your site to supply Solutions;
 2. costs associated with your cancellation of a Supply Order;
 3. costs we incur arising from any breach of your obligations under this agreement; or
 4. costs we incur if we agree to make any changes to the Solution you have ordered or the terms of the Supply Agreement that we have entered into with you.

We may include any such costs that are reasonably incurred by us as part of the Fees and may charge you such Fees in accordance with these terms.

Cancellation of Supply Orders

- d. To the extent permitted by law, if you cancel a Supply Order and we have incurred costs in preparing to supply you with the Solutions agreed in that Supply Order, we reserve the right to retain your deposit to cover such costs. This right is in addition to any other legal or contractual rights we may have in relation to the cancellation, such as the right to require full payment for any partially delivered Solution.

Cancellation of training or consulting services

- e. To the extent permitted by law, if you cancel or postpone any training or consulting services that you have ordered, you will be charged the following Fees:
 1. 14 days prior to the provision of the service – 50% of the Fees payable;
 2. 7 days prior to provision of the service – 75% of the fees payable for the service; and
 3. less than 7 days prior to provision of the service – 100% of the fees payable for the service.

Changing Fees

- f. By giving you at least 30 days' written notice before the change takes effect, we may:
 4. change the amount of any Fees (except as a result of any introduction of or change in any State or Federal taxes, which requires us to implement a change within a shorter time period); and
 5. change the circumstances in which, or the frequency with which, a Fee is payable.
- f. Part A26 tells you about the ways in which we can give you notice.
- g. Where the change results from any introduction of or change in any State or Federal taxes, we may not be able to give you 30 days' notice. If this happens we will notify you of any Fee change as soon as possible.

Termination rights

- h. If we make a change to our Fees under Part A8e or A8f above, then you have the option to terminate your Supply Agreement. Please see Part A14 for more details.

Goods and Services Tax

- i. In addition to any other clauses in these terms the following terms and conditions apply:
 1. in Part A8 the expressions 'adjustment note', 'consideration', 'GST', 'supply', 'tax invoice', 'recipient', 'supplier' and 'taxable supply' have the meanings given to them in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).
 2. for the avoidance of doubt, 'GST' includes any penalties or additional tax imposed in relation to GST.

Sums include GST

- k. Unless otherwise expressly stated, all Fees or consideration to be provided under these terms are inclusive of GST.

Responsibility for GST

- j. Despite any other provision in these terms, if GST is imposed on any supply made under these terms, the recipient must pay to the supplier an amount equal to the GST payable on the supply.
- k. The recipient must pay the amount referred to in (a) in addition to and at the same time as payment for the supply is required to be made under these terms.

Tax invoice

- l. If a supply is made to which GST applies or is varied under these terms, the supplier must provide the recipient of the supply a valid tax invoice or adjustment note at or before the time of payment or variation.

Adjustment

- m. If the amount of GST paid or payable by the supplier on any supply made under these terms differs from the amount of GST paid by the recipient, because the Commissioner of Taxation lawfully adjusts the value of the taxable supply for the purpose of calculating GST, then the amount of GST paid by the recipient will be adjusted accordingly by a further payment by the recipient to the supplier or the supplier to the recipient, as the case requires.

A9. PAYMENTTime for payment

- a. You must pay all Fees by the due date or dates specified in any invoices relating to a Supply Order. If for any reason a time for payment is not specified in an invoice you must pay the Fees within 14 days of the date of the invoice.

Manner of payment

- b. You must pay all Fees by cheque or electronic funds transfer in cleared funds at the place or to the bank account specified by us, or by direct debit authority (or credit card if such facility is made available by us), and free of any deduction, set-off or withholding.

Correcting invoice errors

- c. You must give us notice within 7 days of receiving an invoice if you believe the invoice contains any errors. We will work with you to resolve any claim of error in an invoice. If we agree there is an error, we will credit your account accordingly.

Late fee for delayed supply at your request

- d. Where you ask us to delay the supply of software or implementation services, you must pay a late fee calculated daily at 2% per month on the charge for the Solution for the period from the delivery date originally agreed or specified in the Supply Order to the actual delivery date, unless otherwise agreed between you and us in writing.

Late fee on overdue payments

- e. You must pay a late fee calculated daily at the Commonwealth Bank prime commercial lending rate plus 2% p.a. on any amount overdue for payment from the due date for payment until payment occurs, unless otherwise agreed between you and us in writing

Supply Agreements conditional on your creditworthiness

- f. We may require from you, and obtain from anyone else, information relating to your creditworthiness and may provide that information to, and check it with, credit reporting agencies and our related companies. You are entitled to see and request the correction of any such information held by us or our related companies. All our obligations relating to the supply of any Solution are conditional on us becoming and remaining satisfied about your creditworthiness.

Credit Limits, Credit Checks and Security

- g. We may at any time set a credit limit for you and require you to provide or arrange a bond, guarantee or other security for our Fees. You authorise us to the full extent permitted by law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), to give and obtain from a credit reference organisation or other credit provider, information relating to your creditworthiness and to use that information.

A10. RIGHTS FOLLOWING BREACH WITHOUT TERMINATING AGREEMENTAdjusting Fees, suspending supply and reprocessing Solutions

- a. If you do not meet an obligation under these terms or any other agreement between you and us, we may:
 1. adjust our Fees for any Solutions under Part A8c;
 2. impose additional Fees under Part A8c; or
 3. suspend or terminate the supply of any Solutions;

These rights apply in addition to any other rights we may have.

Claiming indemnity

- b. You indemnify us, and the other people who have the benefit of the exclusions and limitation of liability set out in Part A12 (Indemnified Parties), against any Loss or Claim suffered or liability incurred by any of them arising from your negligence, misrepresentation, fraud, breach of law or breach of these terms.
- c. If an Indemnified Party caused or contributed to a Loss or Claim, then your liability under Part A10a above is limited to the amount of the Loss or Claim which is directly attributable to your conduct.

A11. EXCLUSION OF OTHER OBLIGATIONS

Matters outside scope of our obligations

We have no obligation to obtain for you anything other than the Solutions (for example, any services or rights you need from anyone else) and have no liability (whether for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage or otherwise) to you for, nor any obligation to remedy any problem resulting from:

- a. any system design, configuration or integration services supplied by anyone else;
- b. anything being configured otherwise than in accordance with our recommendations;
- c. use of any Solution, by you or anyone else, other than in accordance with the documentation that we supply in relation to that Solution;
- d. anything done by us or anyone else at your request or direction (other than the supply of the Solutions);
- e. any goods or services (for example, any software maintenance services) supplied by anyone else;
- f. any representations made by us which are not set out in the applicable Parts of these terms or in the Supply Order;
- g. any Solution being incompatible with any software or equipment not supplied by us;
- h. anyone else's action, inaction, or delay;
- i. breach of your general obligations set out in Part A4;
- j. any changes to statutory, compliance or legislative requirements that impact on your use of the software;
- k. your Data not being copied or backed up;
- l. any change to your business structure, such as a restructure, partnership split or merger or acquisition (Part B2 also applies where relevant);
- m. migrating or dealing with any of your Data which is corrupt prior to migration or conversion; or
- n. dealing with Data that is known to contain correctable errors and requires cleansing and correction.

A12. EXCLUSION AND LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Liability for non-compliance with statutory guarantees

- a. To the extent permitted by law (and subject to Part A1b), our liability to you for any non-compliance with a statutory guarantee is limited to:
 1. in the case of software:
 - i. the replacement of the software (or the particular component of the software, which caused the failure) or the supply of equivalent software (or particular component of the software); or
 - ii. the payment of the cost of replacing the software (or the particular component of the software, which caused the failure) or of acquiring the equivalent software (or particular component of the software); and
 2. in the case of services:
 - i. the supply of the services again; or
 - ii. the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

- b. All representations, conditions, warranties and terms that would otherwise be expressed or implied in these terms by general law, statute or custom are expressly excluded (to the extent that such representations, conditions, warranties and terms can be excluded at law).
- c. Parts A12a and A12b above are not intended to have the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:
 1. the application of all or any of the provisions of the ACL; or
 2. the exercise of a right conferred by such a provision; or
 3. any liability of us in relation to a failure to comply with a guarantee that applies under Division 1 of Part 3-2 of the ACL to a supply of goods or services.

When we and other beneficiaries of this clause will not be liable to you (this clause does not apply to any non-compliance with a statutory guarantee)

- d. Except in relation to personal injury or death, neither we nor any of the other beneficiaries of this clause referred to below are liable to you for any Loss or Claim (other than in relation to non-compliance with a statutory guarantee, in which case Part A12a applies) suffered by you caused by, in connection with, or resulting from anything we do or do not do, or delay in doing, or any negligence, misrepresentation, or other default by us or our officers, employees, contractors or agents, whether or not it is contemplated or authorised by these terms. This exclusion applies irrespective of what you are claiming, including:
 1. loss of profits or business;
 2. loss of opportunity;
 3. loss, destruction or corruption of Data; or
 4. expenses incurred for reconstructing or rekeying Data, and however liability arises or might arise (whether through tort or contract) if it were not for this clause.
- e. If we or any other beneficiaries referred to in the following paragraph are ever liable to you for a Loss or Claim and, for any reason, cannot rely on any exclusion of liability set out in this clause, the maximum combined liability of us and those other beneficiaries to you is the amount paid by you to us in the six month period up to the date of the event giving rise to the liability.

Other beneficiaries of this clause

- f. The exclusions and limitation of liability in this Part also apply for the benefit of all our related companies and all our officers, employees, contractors and agents and their related companies.

Compatibility of software & equipment

- g. You acknowledge that irrespective of the fact that we may specify minimum or recommended equipment or operating environment requirements in relation to the software, we do not profess to be experts in relation to the compatibility of the software and any particular equipment or equipment components, operating environment or the correct configuration of such equipment or operating environment to enable the software to operate correctly.

- h. Furthermore we specifically exclude any warranty that the software shall operate on such minimum or recommended equipment or operating environment and therefore excludes any Loss or Claim suffered as a result of problems related to the compatibility, performance of configuration of particular equipment or operating environment.

A13. EVENTS BEYOND REASONABLE CONTROL

We are not liable for failing to meet an obligation under these terms to the extent that, and for as long as, the failure is caused by an event beyond our reasonable control (including any delay in supply or failure of any goods or services supplied to us). If we fail, or we reasonably believe that we may fail, to meet an obligation because of an event beyond our reasonable control, we must use reasonable endeavours to give notice to you of the event and the likely effect of the event and do all we reasonably can to meet the obligation as soon as is reasonably practicable. This does not require us to change the way we would otherwise deal with any labour disruption.

A14. TERMINATION OF SUPPLY AGREEMENTS BY YOU

Termination for material breach of obligations or Fee change

You may terminate a Supply Agreement if:

- a. we have breached a material term of these terms and the breach remains un-remedied 14 days after you give us notice of the breach; or
- b. we change our Fees under Part A8e or A8f or any of the terms of these terms under Part A19, by giving us no less than 14 days' notice after we notify you of the change.

Termination for intervening event

- c. If we fail to meet an obligation under a Supply Agreement continuously for 60 days because of an event beyond our reasonable control, you may give notice terminating the Part of the Supply Agreement affected by the failure.

Termination at end of invoicing period

- d. You may give notice terminating a Supply Agreement, in relation to any software licence, software maintenance service or other service which is invoiced on a periodic basis, by giving us no less than 30 days' notice before the beginning of any invoicing period for that licence or service.
- e. You are deemed to have repudiated a particular Supply Agreement if any amount owing by you in relation to any software licence, software maintenance service, or any other ongoing service remains unpaid 30 days after the due date for payment, unless we give express written notice before that date suspending the operation of this clause on such terms as we may specify.

Effect on software licence and other Supply Agreements

- f. If you terminate a specified Supply Agreement in relation to any type of Solution, all other Supply Agreements will remain in force until they expire or are terminated in accordance with their terms.

Termination of Bank Feeds

- g. If you have purchased Bank Feeds, you have additional termination rights, described in Part D of these terms.

A15. TERMINATION OF SUPPLY AGREEMENTS BY US

Termination following change in Customer's capacity

- a. We may give notice terminating any Supply Agreement with immediate effect if we reasonably consider that you have ceased or are threatening to cease conducting your business, have become or are threatening to become subject to any form of insolvency administration, have dissolved or are threatening to dissolve, die, or become incapacitated.

Termination on notice

- b. We may give notice terminating these terms, or any individual Supply Agreement, without needing to give any reason for doing so by giving 30 days' notice to you. If these terms are terminated, all Supply Agreements are terminated immediately.

Effect on other Supply Agreements

- c. If we terminate a Supply Agreement under this clause, we may in the same notice terminate any or all other Supply Agreements with you. Unless we do this, all other Supply Agreements will remain in force until they expire or are terminated in accordance with their terms.

Termination of Bank Feeds

- d. We have additional termination rights in respect of you if you purchase Bank Feeds, described in Part D of these terms.

A16. RIGHTS FOLLOWING TERMINATION

On termination of a Supply Agreement by either you or us, unless otherwise agreed in writing:

- a. you must uninstall any Solutions supplied under the terminated Supply Agreement which are not owned by you; and
- b. both you and we must either destroy (and confirm in writing to the other that it has been done) or return to the other all information relating to the terminated Supply Agreement which by its nature is confidential or is designated confidential, excluding any information that is required to be held for compliance purposes. These rights apply in addition to any other rights either you or we may have.

A17. ASSIGNMENT

You may not assign your interest in these terms or any part of it without written consent from us. We may assign any of our rights or obligations under these terms.

A18. SUBCONTRACTING

We may sub-contract any person to perform any of our obligations under these terms.

A19. CHANGES TO THE SALES AND SERVICES AGREEMENT

- a. By giving you at least 30 days' prior notice of the change, we may change the terms of any Part of these terms by:
 1. changing or removing existing terms;
 2. adding new terms;
 3. replacing a complete Part of these terms; or
 4. adding a new Part to these terms.
- b. In addition to complying with Part A26, the notice must set out the actual changes in as much detail as is reasonably required to understand their meaning and effect.
- c. If you make payment for any Solutions covered by these terms following expiry of the notice period, such payment will be taken as your acceptance of the changes.
- d. If we make a change to these terms under this Part A19, then you have the option to terminate your Supply Agreement. Please see Part A14 for more details.

A20. CHANGES TO SUPPLY AGREEMENTS

Any change to a term of these terms for the purposes of a proposed Supply Agreement must be recorded in the Supply Order before it is signed and does not become effective unless approved in writing by MYOB's Legal Team. Any other change to a Supply Agreement must be in writing and must be signed by both you and us.

A21. RESOLVING DISAGREEMENTS

- a. Any disagreement between you and us relating to the meaning or performance of these terms must be referred to us initially by email at accountants@myob.com.au or by calling 1300 555 666. The contact people must use their best endeavours to resolve the disagreement promptly.
- b. If the disagreement has not been resolved within 30 days of being referred to the contact people (or any other period agreed between them), either you or we may give notice escalating the matter for consideration at senior management level. If the senior management personnel do not resolve the disagreement within a further 30 days, they must use their best endeavours to agree on an appropriate dispute resolution procedure.

A22. NO WAIVER

Except where a party has signed an express written waiver of a right under these terms, no delay or failure to exercise a right under these terms prevents the exercise of that or any other right on that or any other occasion. A written waiver applies only to the right and on the occasions specified in it.

A23. SEVERING UNLAWFUL TERMS

If either party considers a term of these terms is unlawful and unenforceable, both parties must continue to perform all their obligations under these terms until a final decision is made by a court or arbitrator on the lawfulness and enforceability of the term, unless both parties agree otherwise. If a court or arbitrator makes a final decision that the term is unlawful and unenforceable, it will be severed from these terms to the extent that it is unlawful and unenforceable and the rest of these terms will remain in force.

A24. MORE THAN ONE CUSTOMER

If there is more than one business which is a party to these terms, all parties must meet all your obligations under these terms.

A25. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These terms are governed by the law of New South Wales and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales. Neither of us may object to New South Wales as the forum for any proceeding.

A26. GIVING NOTICES

- a. Any notice given under these terms must be in writing except where these terms expressly permits it to be given orally. To be effective, any notice must be either delivered (personally by ordinary mail or by registered mail), or emailed to the contact address, or email address specified on the front page of the most recent Supply Order (or to any replacement or additional address, or email address notified in writing by the other party of that purpose).
- b. A notice given by registered mail is deemed delivered 2 business days after it has been posted. A notice given by email is deemed delivered at the time the transmission is completed if that is before 5pm on a business day or, if not, then on the next business day.

PART B – SOFTWARE LICENCE TERMS

B1. GRANT OF LICENCE

- a. Subject to you complying with these terms, we licence you to use the software specified in each signed Supply Order and such licence:
 1. is limited to the number of users, funds, user entities or other limitation as specified in the Supply Order;
 2. is non-transferable and non-exclusive; and
 3. includes the number of copies of any media and printed or electronic documentation specified in the Supply Order or otherwise associated with that software and supplied by us.

- b. For the avoidance of doubt, provision of a licence under these terms does not create any obligations on us (such as provision of service packs, updates, enhancements or upgrades) other than those expressly provided under these terms and any signed Supply Orders. You must:
1. use the software only at the site specified in the Supply Order or otherwise approved in writing by us;
 2. use the software (other than temporarily in an emergency) only on equipment and operating environments approved by us for that software, as notified on our website and in accordance with operating procedures approved by us; and
 3. copy the software for the purpose of backup and security only. The licence extends to any modification supplied by us under Part B4, and to any service pack, update, enhancement or upgrade supplied by us under Part C, for which you have paid our Fees.

B2. LICENCING AND SUB-LICENCING

General Restrictions

- a. You must not modify, adapt, alter, disassemble, decompile or reverse-engineer any code or database structure except to the extent you are permitted to do so by law and must not, without first obtaining our written consent, do anything else with the software which is inconsistent with or beyond the scope of the rights expressly granted in Part B1.
- b. Where the software is used to modify Data, you must only use the software to modify the Data. If the Data is accessible using third party tools, you must not use such tools to modify the Data yourself or any structures used to store or represent the Data for example, database schema, specific Data type, tables, columns, triggers, stored procedures or other database objects without our prior written consent.
- c. Under no circumstance may you:
 1. transfer or sub-licence (with the exception of the BankLink Software, as set out in Part B2d below), in whole or in part, without our express written consent; or
 2. split software licenses if your business is divided into two or more separate entities or changes as a result of partnership split, insolvency or appointment of administrator.

Sub-licence of BankLink Software

- d. We permit you to sub-licence the BankLink Software to your clients, provided that you:
 1. ensure that every client to whom you sub-licence the software is bound by the provisions of the End User Licence;
 2. provide no representations or warranties in respect of the software on our behalf;

3. ensure that your clients are aware that we do not support the software directly to them; and
4. will, to the extent permitted by law, contract out of all conditions, guarantees, warranties and undertakings imposed by law when sub-licencing the software.

B3. DELIVERING AND INSTALLING THE SOFTWARE
